Ripley County Reads 2023 Park Hop Passports Now Available

By Tali Crowe

We've had a few days already this year with Spring weather and warm sunshine, and we hope you take advantage of the beautiful days to come by visiting parks throughout Ripley County!

The fourth Ripley County Reads Park Hop is only a couple of weeks underway, so you still have plenty of time to pick up or download your passport and...are you ready?...hop into the fun!

When the park hop started a main goal was to encourage families with young children to visit and enjoy parks throughout the county, but it has grown to be a scavenger hunt for all ages.

If you fill out a passport and attend the finale at the Versailles State park on Saturday, May 6, your name will be entered to win some big prizes. Everyone who attends will also receive a bag filled with fun freebies!
